

The SAP Garden, with seating for up to 11,500, will be the future home of German ice hockey champion Munich Red Bull and German basketball champion FC Bayern Munich. To improve the local sports infrastructure for schools, amateur clubs and young talent, three additional covered ice rinks will be built alongside the sports arena as training facilities and for recreational use. Completion is scheduled for the end of 2022.